In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

[ ] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 28-year old born and raised in the Houston, Texas area. He currently resides with his grandfather, who raised him. He maintains monthly contact with his parents and 4 half-siblings.
2. Defendant has been in a relationship for the past 4 years, and the couple have a 3-month-old daughter together. Defendant advised he would live with his girlfriend if released on bond. He indicated no firearms are maintained at his girlfriend's residence and he denied owning any firearms. Defendant reported he once used Cannabinoids daily, and hasn't used in 3 weeks. He denied having a passport.
3. Defendant reported he was employed as an electrician's assistant prior to his last arrest, where he earned approximately $3500/month. His estimated net worth is $3000 and his estimated monthly cash flow ranges from $450 to $650.
4. Defendant's criminal history consists of convictions for burglary, unauthorized absence from community corrections facility, possession of marijuana, unlawful possession of a firearm, and evading arrest with a motor vehicle.
5. Defendant attempted to flee on his initial arrest, resulting in an automobile chase at speeds over 100 mph, endangering the safety of the public.
6. Defendant has engaged in criminal activity while under supervision.
7. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
